

Who Was Heavy Duty?

by

Roger Wyatt

Guy "Heavy Duty" Roberts and I were roommates while in the USAF. He got that nickname during basic training. We were standing inspection, but Guy had his cap tilted back on his head. Since he was a big fellow, the inspecting officer walked up, looked him directly in the face and asked....."and what were you in civilian life, Heavy Duty, a motorboat enthusiast."

The name stuck and thereafter he was known as "Heavy Duty" Roberts.
