

485 ~ History

March 28, 1966 ~ The 485th GEEIA squadron was “born” in Vietnam at Cam Rahn Bay, Vietnam as a tenant squadron of the 12th TFW.

May 1, 1970 ~ The 485th GEEIA Squadron became the 485th Electronics Installation Squadron.

July 31, 1977 ~ The 485th Electronics Installation Squadron became the 485th Communications & Installation Group.

July 1, 1980 ~ The 485th Communications & Installation Group became the 485th Electronics Installation Group, and it was assigned to the 38 Engineering Installation Wing November 1994 and remained there until the squadron inactivated in December 1995.