

William Frank "Dal" Dalrymple

William Frank "Dal" Dalrymple, 75, passed away November 29, 2009. Dal was born May 6, 1934 in Sugar Grove, Pennsylvania to Lawrence Allen and Nellie May (Sherrard) Dalrymple.

At age 17 he joined the U.S. Air Force, and while in the Air Force, he was stationed at Kirland AFB, Albuquerque, New Mexico and met Shirley Roth. They had one son, Dale.

Dal served in Korea and Vietnam, and while stationed in Athens, Greece his son, Patrick, was born.

Dal retired from the Air Force September 1, 1971 and moved to Sherman, Texas where he worked for the General Telephone Company. In 1980 he married Wanda Moore. Dal worked at Tinker AFB, Oklahoma City until his retirement in June, 1996.

Dal was preceded in death by his parents, wife Wanda, son Dale, and father figure Morley Bean.

Survivors include his son, Patrick Dalrymple and wife Janice; grandson, Aron Dalrymple; all of Sherman, Texas; brother, Allen Dalrymple and wife Rennie of Northeast Pennsylvania; mother figure, Irene Bean of Tionesta, Pennsylvania.

Funeral service was December 3, 2009 at the Bill Eisenhower Northeast Funeral Home. Interment was in Arlington Memory Gardens in Oklahoma City.